Copy of a letter written in English dated 15 May 1946, intercepted at Dharamtala P.O. on 17.5.46.

From:- K.R. Srivatsa, 6 Acre Road, Park Circus, Calcutta.

To :- Sjt. Tushar Kanti Ghosh, Editor, Anrit Bazar Patrika,
No.12, Anand Chatterjee Lane, Calcutta.

Dear Editor,

I came to know from ^{to-}day's late morning edition of Anrit Bazar Patrika that Babu Sarat Chandra is moving heaven & earth to bring Mr. Anand Mohan Sahay to India. I come from Japan. I was appointed as Secretary of the I.I.L. there by our revered Netaji and I was ^astaff member of the P.G. Free India Broad Casting Station. I was sent by the British Embassy back to India on April 24th 1946. I heard from Col. Figgiso at the British Embassy at Tokyo that Mr. Sahay was detained at Changi prison at Singapore. I was not allowed to get down at Singapore and meet Mr. Sahay whom I know personally. But I managed to get ashore through some assistance offered by certain Singapore merchants. To my jubilation Mr. Sahay had been released the same day 7th May 1946. I saw him. His daughter & brother are with him. He told me that he has made arrangements to come to India within a week or two. He is in sound health. By the way dear Editor I would like to bring to your attention my case and I hope you would consider it disinterestedly. I went from India (Madras) to Japan in Aug 1941 as Post Graduate student in ^{Fisheries?} Fishenis at Tokyo Imperial University. I was not allowed to proceed from Singapore to Japan by the Colonial Secretary there. Neither he allowed me to proceed to Tokyo nor he send me back to India. I was caught in a web of terrible dimensions? My house was bombed out. Just after the surrender of Singapore I joined with the Indian Indep. League. I was selected by the league's Managing Committee to be attached to the Hqs at Bangkok. Fortunately they (authorities at Hqs) appreciated my talents and send me to Tokio as staff member of the League's Broad Casting

Casting Station. I was the first Indian representative then to be sent to Japan. I didn't waste time. I mastered the otherwise redon'table & cumbersome Japanese language and on Oct 1943 entered the Tokio Imperial University's Fisheries faculty as a Post Graduate student. From Oct 1942 I was broadcasting to India every other day. Netaji came to Tokio on 6th June 1943. During an assembly of Indians at Tokio Netaji selected me as Secretary of the I.I.L., Tokyo, which action was unanimously approved by all present. I used to get letters from Netaji admonishing me for I wrote to him several times to permit me to ~~join~~ join the I.N.A. Netaji's desire was to keep my personnel at the rear and more over he wanted me to finish my course at the Imperial University. Unfortunately our movement had to be closed owing to the surrender of Japan. My house was bombed out twice at Tokyo. I lost all my personal goods. After the surrender I was interrogated by the U.S.A. Counter Intelligence Corps and set free. In fact the Americans were kind to me. As I had a good sacrifice backing one Col. in the American army requested my services for the medical department of the U.S. 8th Army at Tokyo. I joined on October 1945 and on November 1945 I was appointed by Col. Lane as Director of Civilian Affairs Department with a salary of Rs 900 ($ 260). I was continuing the work very smoothly. One day the authority got a note from the Allied Military Police to remove me from my position as I was working for Mr. Bose during the War. This was prompted by the British Embassy at Tokyo. They spared all other Indians who were working as Clerks or Interpreters. I had to report to the Embassy and the Colonel there advised me to proceed to India by S S Royala leaving BCOF naval base KURE on 24th April 1946. I agreed to be sent back. During voyage I was interrogated twice. I was candid frank. In fact the O.C. troop, admired me very much. I came to Calcutta on 14 May. I am now put up at the Refugee centre at 6 Acre Road, Park Circus. Govt. of Bengal sent some intelligence Officers after me and when I smelled them as C.I.Ds, I told them everything about me. Govt of Bengal is sending me back to Casting Station. I was the first Indian representative to be sent to Japan. I didn't waste time. I mastered the hitherto wise redoubtable & cumbersome Japanese language and on 10 Dec 1942 entered the Tokio Imperial University's Fisheries faculty as a Post Graduate student. From Oct 1942 I was broadcasting to India every other day. Netaji came to Tokio on 6th June 1943. During an assembly of Indians at Tokio Netaji selected me as Secretary of the I.I.L., Tokyo, which action was unanimously approved by all present. I used to get letters from Netaji admonishing me for I wrote to him several times to permit me to ~~toixth~~ join the I.N.A. Netaji's desire was to keep my personnel at the rear and more over he wanted me to finish my course at the Imperial University. Unfortunately our movement had to be closed owing to the surrender of Japan. My house was bombed out twice at Tokyo. I lost all my personal goods. After the surrender I was interrogated by the U.S.A. Counter Intelligence Corps and set free. In fact the Americans were kind to me. As I had a good sacrifice backing one Col. in the American army requested my services for the medical department of the U.S. 8th Army at Tokyo. I joined on October 1945 and on November 1945 I was appointed by Col. Lane as Director of Civilians Affairs Department with a salary of Rs 900 ($ 260). I was continuing the work very smoothly. One day the authority got a note from the Allied Military Police to remove me from my position as I was working for Mr. Bose during the War. This was prompted by the British Embassy at Tokyo. They spared all other Indians who were working as Clerks or Interpreters. I had to report to the Embassy and the Colonel there advised me to proceed to India by S S Royala leaving BCOF naval base RUMI on 24th April 1946. I agreed to be sent back. During voyage I was interrogated twice. I was candid & frank. In fact the O.C. troop, admired me very much. I came to Calcutta on 14 May. I am now put up at the Refugee centre at 6 Acre Road, Park Circus. Govt. of Bengal sent some intelligence Officers after me and when I smelled them as C.I.Ds, I told them everything about me. Govt of Bengal is sending me back to

Back to Madras as a refugee thro G.I. & M.S.M. Railway. I am at a loss to know what I should do after I reach home. I was told by Mr. Sahay that some INA relief Comatt. people would come to receive me at Calcutta but nobody came.

My liking is Fisheries. I do not know whether there are any openings in that line. I was at the Tokyo Imperial University for 3 years, last one year at the Research dept. In case I do not get some competent post in that line I would like to write about what I know about Japan during and after War and about East Asia. I want to contribute my articles to some newspapers. Could I get a favourable consideration and push if I attempt? My people are not rich. All three brothers of mine went to College procuring Govt. scholarships. After seeing foreign countries I could not live at the low wages Indian youths are offered as clerks or typists in India. If you think that I have did some sacrifice for India's cause please consider my case & assist me.

Yours cordially,

dated 15.5.46.

On 14.5.46 about 500 persons, including some ladies and youngsters, received Major General A.C. Chatarji of I.N.A. at Siliguri railway station on his way to Darjeeling. The gathering carried several Congress flags and a band party was in attendance. After an address of welcome to Chatarji by Dr. Brajendra Kumar Basu Ray Chaudhuri on behalf of the local Congress and public he (Chatarji) gave a short speech in which he urged for unity, strength, firm faith and sacrifice in the cause of independence. He also requested the audience to work peacefully and not to create trouble such as in 1942. In reply to a question he said that Subhas Chandra Basu is glad as far as he knows, though he has no first hand info. known on the point.

Major General A.C. Chatarji of I.N.A. arrived at Darjeeling the same afternoon (14.5.46). On 18.5.46 he has given a public reception at Chark bazar, Darjeeling and left for Delhi the same afternoon. He came here ostensibly to recover his health.

179-35 For D.I.G., C.I.D., Burma.

On 9.5.46 an officer of this Department, whilst on some enquiry at the I.N.A. office in Calcutta, noticed an individual being escorted by three Burma Police officers into the I.N.A. Office. As a result of enquiries the individual was found to be Sushil Kumar Das Khastagir, the subject of this Office memo No. 10189 dated 30.4.46. I presume the individual was taken to the I.N.A. office at his own request.

I would suggest that in future persons of this province escorted to India by the Burma Police be made over to this Office for onward despatch to their home districts.

My dear Barnes,

Kindly refer to your Memo No. P.M.868/46IV dated 13-5-46, addressed to Beveridge.

2. I shall be very grateful if you will forward all I.N.A. intelligence direct to me as I am dealing with that subject.

3. In the report which has been sent, you have mentioned "two men who appeared to be Punjabis dressed in military uniform, wearing two black ribbons and emroidered letters, 'Burma Police', on their shoulders". Is it possible that these men were members of the Burma Police Force on leave in Calcutta? If so, I should like to forward details about them to the Burma C.I.D.

Yours sincerely,

4. Fifty boys dressed in Khadder half pants, half shirts and wearing bust photos of SUBHAS CHANDRA BASU.
5. 25 girls including Miss CHHAYA GUHA (E.S.P.) and Miss ASHA RAY (E.S.P.) dressed in sarees and Gandhi caps.
6. 30 men (mostly Up country men) dressed in full pants, half shirts and fatigue caps, wearing bust photos of SUBHAS CHANDRA BASU and small Congress flags on their chests.

On Lt. Col. CHATARJI'S arrival at about 13.00 hours he was garlanded by SARAT CHANDRA BASU and AMIYA BASU. About 50 volunteers of the I.N.A.C. in uniform presented him with a guard of honour on the platform. CHATARJI was then taken in a car, driven by JAGANNATH KOLEY. The car took its position behind the processionists near the Bus Stand and then the gathering moved off carrying a few Congress flags and shouting appropriate slogans. A publicity van No. BLL1370 fitted with a loud speaker was at the head of the procession. The procession passed over Ho.rah Bridge and then along Harrison Road, College Street and Bow Bazar Street and reached the I.N.A. Relief Committee Office at 131, Bowbazar Street at about 15.15 hours. The Sikhs on horseback, 10 Up country looking I.N.A. men wearing I.N.A. letters and 20 persons wearing bust photos of SUBHAS CHANDRA BASU formed into 3 lines in front of the office and presented a guard of honour to CHATARJI who went inside followed by SARAT BASU, AMIYA BASU, SATISH BASU, BISWANATH MUKHERJI, JAGANNATH KOLEY, M.K. BHILLANI and 10 others. Shortly after the processionists dispersed. At about 17.15 hours CHATARJI accompanied by SARAT BASU, JAGANNATH KOLEY and his daughter-in-law went to 8/5 Alipur Road in car B.L.B.4242.

Extract from the Secret Malayan Security Service
Political Intelligence Journal dated Singapore 15th May, 1946.

Indian affairs, like the Indonesian, have been dominated by the tendency of leaders to wish to return home. This welcome tendency is now extending to S.C. Goho, who leaves by air on May 15th. Wazir Mohd. Khan, an I.N.A. leader, who left by s.s. "Cheshire" on May 11th and Suppah, a G.I.U. adherent on the Committee of the Government and Municipal Union, also left on May 11th. The well-known N. Raghavan, A.M. Sahay from Japan, and C.D. Nair of the Democratic League of India are expected to leave shortly. A movement, which has taken some time to crystallise, called the Indian Nationalist Muslim Majlis has at last made formal appearance, led by V.P. Abdul of the Kerala Bandhu, with an inaugural meeting on May 5th. It owes its origin to S.C. Bose influence during the occupation on Muslims, mostly Malayalees, and it is pro-Congress and anti-Pakistan. It claims to be aiming at cultural and political advancement of Indian Muslim in Malaya. Its following and reception are not yet known. This development may be the outcome of the Hindu-Muslim tension reported in Issue No. 1 or perhaps a response to the Muslim campaign, suspected Government-sponsored, which was conducted by Rev. Mr. B. Munir (see Issue I, page 3) who became anti-army on return from local leave and has not been repatriated.

Copy of a letter written in English dated 16th May, 1946, intercepted at Elgin Road P.O. on 20.5.46, bearing the postal seal of issue illegible.

From: D.K. Chowdhury, C/o S.J. Durganath Chakravarty, Tripura Modern Bank, 57 Clive Street, Calcutta.

To :- S.J. Aniya Nath Bose, No. 1, Woodburn Park, Calcutta.

Jai Hind,

Though it is unbecoming on the part of an ordinary soldier to take initiative, yet there are certain stages in freedom-struggle when the most humble one should act in the capacity of a commander. This principle was enunciated by Netaji in 1944, just after the betrayal of Major Prabhu Dayal in Imphal and Major Dey in Arakan sector. Hence this letter to you.

Despite all your efforts to help the released I.N.A. personnels, there is a chasm in the system, which if left as it is, will widen the gulf between the masses and the leadership. In view of the present situation, failure to canalise the enthusiasm of the radical elements of the country amounts to disinterested suicide. During the latter part of 1943, the brave boys who at the bidding of Netaji, rushed into the jaw of death by infiltration into India, are left in the lurch. They are scattered helter - skelter without being organised into a militant body of guerrillas.

These brave boys are far superior to those flunkys and stooges who have, to-day, caught the imagination of the teeming millions of the land by their mock-heroics. It was on the 24th February 1945, that "we" were given the last instruction by Netaji to re-organise our group inside India.

Except Major-General Shah Nawaz and his other companions, even a sweep of the Azad Hind force has undergone metamorphose because of the unstinted support of the nation to I.N.A. affair. But, while there was no ray of hope in the horizon, it was those three heroes viz. Maj-Gen Shah Nawaz and his two companions who stood equal to the occasion (I.N.A.) risk of their lives.

So, what I humbly request you, is to visualise the emergency and to organise the fighting elements instead of having allowed these virile qualities of the country to be diffused in the wilderness without being utilised by the stalwarts of the land. Please allow us to organise ourselves inside India according to the advice of Netaji and so your assistance is solicited.

Yours in national service.

Re. Prigahalli Datta 870
Prasanna Kumar Datta
of Ramnagar, P.O. Dindigul
Dist. Dindigul

A note on this may be seen at pages 82 & 77 in the I.A. file.

It appears that he worked in different European firms in Calcutta from 1922 to 1925
and in Dajuliga from 1925 to 1937.
In 1937 he was recommended in the I.A. as a field cashier and later on reported to Dindigul.

In Sept. 42 he joined the I.N.A.
and was posted to the S.S. Group as an Adjutant. After the Mohan Singh crisis he joined the new I.N.A. and was sent to Rangoon. He came in touch with Subhas Ch. Bose and accompanied him later on a tour (p. 78). He was appointed as Area Commander, Rangoon with orders to arrange accommodation for evacuated personnel & to dispatch fit men further south.
For mis managing Capt. Datta affair Bose removed him from his office.

He has been labelled Black.
There is nothing against him in S.P.

May have no objection to his settling in Calcutta
now that all important ex-I.N.A. personnel have been labelled 'Black'.

After the Japanese occupation, I.I.L. was opened at Rangoon and his brother B.Sumitra Rao became the stenographer to Netaji. His uncle T.S.Rao became the Manager of the Azad Hind Bank at Rangoon. He studied upto 9th standard in St. Paul's English High School at Rangoon. He joined the propaganda camp of the I.I.L. and was receiving money from the I.I.L. Netaji assisted by the Secretary Major Jehangir, selected him and three others A.R.Dutta, G.Gandhidoss and B.K.Dev for Tokyo Cadet's School from the I.I.L. Rangoon. From Rangoon they came to Manila having been joined by six more students from Malaya and from Manila they went to Tokyo by plane. They were put up in the preparatory school for about three months from October 23rd, 1944 and were given training in Japanese language and mathematics. For about 8 months until surrendered by the Japanese 10 students of whom he is one were trained in the aviation school. All were given training in theory about planes and the working of engines. They were taught balancing in air and also given glider training. In November 1944 when Netaji arrived at Haneda Air port, Tokyo, he was garlanded by the Indian student cadets who were invited for a lunch along with other Indians in Tokyo by Netaji at his bungalow. Netaji is said to have advised them to train themselves well for being true Indians so as to achieve freedom for India.

Regarding the other particulars in respect of their return journey he corroborated R.Mayappan of Ramnad District. He added that it was only due to the inventions of Atomic energy by the Allies, Japan had to surrender and that the Americans who occupied Tokyo were astonished to find 15 thousand suicide planes ready in stock at Tokyo. He believes in the death of Netaji in the plane crash.

At about 10.00 hours on 9.5.46 about 100 men collected at Kalighat Park and then went to Dalhousie Square by tram car. From there they marched in a procession to Howrah Station. The students of Bangabasi Collegiate School went on strike and were noticed moving in a procession towards Howrah Station. At Howrah Station about 500 volunteers including 25 men on horseback and 24 ladies were present to receive CHATARJI. At about 12.00 hours M.K. BHIMANI, AMIYA BASU, SARAT BASU, Sisir Basu, Jagannath Koley, Hemanta Basu, Satish Basu, Adwaita Datta, Miss Chhaya Guha, Miss Asha Ray, Rajen Chakrabarti, Kanai Das, Ramkamal Das, Biswanath Mukherji, and four elderly ladies, including a European lady, daughter-in-law of Lt. Col. CHATARJI arrived at the station. At about 12.30 hours a procession was formed near the Howrah Bus Stand as detailed below -

1. Two Bengalees on motor cycles.
2. Ten Bengalees on cycles.
3. 200 youths dressed in Khadder full pants, half shirts, Gandhi caps with a bust of SUBHAS CHANDRA BASU inscribed and wearing miniature Congress flags on their chests.

4. Fifty boys dressed in Khadder half pants, half shirts and wearing bust photos of SUBHAS CHANDRA BASU.

6. 30 men (mostly Up country men) dressed in full pants, half shirts and fatigue caps, wearing bust photos of SUBHAS CHANDRA BASU and small Congress flags on their chests.

On Lt. Col. CHATARJI'S arrival at about 13.00 hours he was garlanded by SARAT CHANDRA BASU and AMIYA BASU. About 50 volunteers of the I.N.A.C. in uniform presented him with a guard of honour on the platform. CHATARJI was then taken in a car, driven by JAGANNATH KOLEY. The car took its position behind the processionists near the Bus Stand and then the gathering moved off carrying a few Congress flags and shouting appropriate slogans. A publicity van No. BLL1370 fitted with a loud speaker was at the head of the procession. The procession passed over Ho rah Bridge and then along Harrison Road, College Street and Bow Bazar Street and reached the I.N.A. Relief Committee Office at 131, Bowbazar Street at about 15.15 hours. The Sikhs on horseback, 10 Up country looking I.N.A. men wearing I.N.A. letters and 20 persons wearing bust photos of SUBHAS CHANDRA BASU formed into 3 lines in front of the office and presented a guard of honour to CHATARJI who went inside followed by SARAT BASU, AMIYA BASU, SATISH BASU, BISWANATH MUKHARJI, JAGANNATH KOLEY, M.K. BHILANI and 10 others. Shortly after the processionists dispersed. Dear Khoka you are the only son amongst the three to whom I had high opinion. I hope you will try your level best to make your family bright name. Hope you will always bear in mind my request and wishes. We all are very anxious to see you so I wrote to Amio Babu who reply me that he will try to send you here. Don't worry for it. When we all are alive we will meet again. God is great. Please let me know which line you have selected.

I don't know whether I will be able to see them. The work I have in my hand is a good work. I hope I may get 3 to 4 thousand within 2 months. I had a mind to write you a very long letter but when I am writing to you I could not remember anything. Hope you will excuse me. We all are well. Please let me know about your study and health.

I have the honour to report that on local enquiry and through secret enquiries through an agent, the whereabouts of any Tokyo Cadet could not be traced within our jurisdiction in Dum Dum.

The address 3/2 Kali Charan Sett Lane which was visited by the man in military Uniform, is within Cossipur P.S. Calcutta. Perhaps the S.B. may be able to trace the man through secret enquiries and by placing watch at this place.

31, Rash Behari Avenue - No movement.

On 2-3-46 A.S.I. Karen Chakraborty of I.B. while on duty at Dum Dum noticed that a youth in military uniform got down at Dum Dum at about 12.00 hours from an up local train. He was received by about a dozen of school boys amidst shouts of 'Jai Hind' 'Netaji-Ki-Jai' etc. They proceeded to 3/2 Keli Charan Sett Lane, Dum Dum where they waited for about 45 minutes. The man in military uniform left for Bully by Dankuni local. The A.S.I. could recognise this man as ^{one} of the I.N.A. cadets who arrived at Howrah by the last week of January, 1946.

On 3-3-46 about 45 released I.N.A. personnel were brought to Dum Dum in a military truck at about 13-3-hours under military escort. They were in Khaki uniform, some had tricoloured badges and some had I.N.A. badges written in ink. They boarded 14 Down E.I.Ry Delhi Express. There was no demonstration.

Delhi, 28th April, 1946.

Dear Sir, I have kept you so far in darkness about my activities but you should not think that I have not been busy to live up to my reputation and prestige. By the way of my short tour in Bengal and Bihar, I have come to know the situation to be done in propagating the principles of Hinduism in the country. I realize that I should make my headquarters in Calcutta and control my sub-stations in different places according to the lay out of my programme for this purpose. I should like you to write to the President of Bihar and the President Provincial Congress Bengal and Calcutta and Patna by the way of introducing me to the public in India, in Germany, Holland, France and other countries that I may be able to see them in time of need. For this purpose I should require an authority better from you to see them in connection with my programme. If you consider it desirable you may kindly advise whether I could approach the President of Bihar for the publicity of my views. A little experience which I gained in my short tour in Bihar and Bengal, has made me feel that the solution of the serious problem facing the country at the present time can only be found in making Hinduism the basis of the nation. If the people in the country will learn to love their mother country in the same way as a soldier loves his motherland without considering who he is, I think the goal of the nation can be achieved in no time. For the present I have decided to stay with my brother at 27/A Convent Road, Calcutta, and will always take up my programme from there.

I think that you will expedite in issuing letter to persons named as requested by me.

I will start my work after I have heard from you.

With regards.

Yours sincerely,

The restriction order on Biren Ray. I.B. wants our opinion regarding his withdrawal of restriction order on the individual. In this connection kindly see our memo at p 158 to I.B.

According to the report of the restriction order on Biren Ray. I.B. wants our opinion regarding his withdrawal of restriction order on the individual. In this connection kindly see our memo at p 158 to I.B.

It appears therefore that the restriction is not inflicting any harm about his change of address. Even if he is present at 131, Baring Road, and officers could not find him there by open or secret enquiries. Under the circumstances I do not find any utility of restriction
